

Are you new to showing or want to sharpen your skills? Chenango County CCE Horse Program is holding a 2 part Showmanship Clinic presented by Andrea LaManque on Saturday August 14, 2021 at the Chenango County Fair.

Part I – The Showmanship Class 9:30 am – 11:30 am: Will take you step by step through a showmanship class that will help you with everything from the basic steps up to sharing the special extras that will set you apart from the competition. This program is made to benefit everyone, no matter if you show English or Western. Do patterns make you nervous? Come learn how you can not only get rid of those jitters but use the pattern to your advantage.

--LUNCH BREAK--

Part II – Grooming for Showmanship 1:00pm – 3:00 pm: Will cover how to present yourself and your horse at their best. From “head-to-toes” and “head-to-tail” get the pointers to make you shine. Also covered will be how to choose the correct attire for you and tack for your horse and keeping it in show condition (aka cleaning).

The clinic is available to everyone.

FEES: $10 To audit the clinic sessions. {Yes / No to the following} You can bring your tack for Part II if you have any questions about it being right for you and your horse.
